)	COSTS

The plaintiff, Beverly Armstead, has filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis in this social security appeal. (ECF No. 2.) The declaration submitted by Armstead in support of her application indicates that during the past 12 months, she has received income from rent payments, interest, or dividends, and also from pension, annuity, or life insurance payments. (See id. at 2.) However, the declaration fails to disclose the amount of income she received and the amount she expects to receive in the future. (See generally id.) Due to this deficiency, I cannot determine whether Armstead is unable to pay the applicable fees, and I cannot grant her application. See NECivR. 3.3(a) (“A financial affidavit that substantially complies with 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a) and discloses the applicant’s income, assets, expenses, and liabilities must accompany an application to proceed in forma pauperis.”).

Armstead may submit a new application supported by a complete declaration, or she may pay the filing fee.

IT IS ORDERED that Armstead’s application to proceed in forma pauperis,

ECF No. 2), is denied without prejudice to refileing.

Dated September 18, 2013.
